Rural Home Missionary Association serves small town pastors and churches. They also run annual multi-day seminars with appropriate speakers and resources.

<http://newsmallchurch.com/>

This resource is designed for the pastor of the smaller church. I especially loved a recent article title which says it all, “Being A Small Church Pastor Isn’t A Penalty, It’s A Specialty.”

<http://www.smallchurchleaders.org/>

The Small Church Leadership Network is a ministry designed to encourage pastors and leaders of small churches and assist in helping them become more effective in their ministry.

Dave Jacobs, with 30 years of pastoral experience in smaller churches, specializes in small churches and their pastors. He provides resourcing and coaching.

<http://studyingcongregations.org>

This site provides tools for understanding your church’s identity. By examining the congregation’s social environment, culture, resources, and patterns, you can customize a vision and plan that fits your “calling” and assignment from God.

Websites

The following websites include books, articles, newsletters, training opportunities, resource tools, web and podcasts, coaches and coaching, blogs, and more.

<https://www.cmtcmultiply.org/>

The Church Multiplication Training Center exists to multiply reproducing churches through equipping and empowering planters, pastors, spouses and leaders of sponsoring agencies.

<https://www.crmleaders.org/>

Originally Church Resource Ministries, CRM's goal is to train individuals to become committed leaders who will stand together and go wherever the needs are greatest. We do this by multiplying leaders throughout the globe...among pastors and those who pioneer new church...among the poor...among the business men and women...and among the emerging generation.
